In September, VINCI Park completed the acquisition of Meteor Parking in the United Kingdom. Archive for September 2010 at World Property Journal. Many are selling shares to fund property acquisitions after using record cash from equity offerings last year to reduce debt and cover dividends, Bloomberg reports. SPECIAL REPORT: Strategic Defaults Threaten All Major U.S. Housing Markets. In my last article, we examined the shadow inventory to determine how many distressed properties (not on MLS) were almost certain to be forced onto the market in the not-to-distant future. According to a recent report from Forbes.com, the average of median price of homes located in the most expensive zip codes in the U.S. now tops over $4,000,000. Forbes.com also reports that the top 500 U.S. zip codes also experienced a continued year-over-year price drop
